RECAP FROM WEEK 8

- The Arcs handed North a 48-20 loss to improve to 4-1 in the WRC, setting up a matchup with Chardon that has conference and playoff implications
- Brush has scored 35+ points in five straight game (all WRC)
- The Arcs had combined for just three wins the past two seasons, after an 8-3 playoff campaign in 2013
- Senior Christian Wright rushed for 268 yards and five touchdowns despite not playing much of the fourth quarter against North.
- Wright has 1,746 rushing yards to go along with 132 points on the season. He is maiming at become only the seventh RB in News-Herald history to surpass the 2,000 yards rushing mark in a season. He also has 25 total touchdowns.
- Wright added Ohio Varsity Player of the Week and a Game Ball from the Plain Dealer following his Week 8 performance
- Godwin Joe surpassed 2,000 yards passing, the last Arc with over 2,000 career yards was Stephen Shorts in 2013
- The Arcs have totaled 1,686 yards in last three games... 448 yards per game has put the Arcs at 3,587 yards for the season, second most in the past 30 years

ABOUT CHARDON

- Chardon is 8-0 on the season, off a 40-17 win over Riverside. They've outscored opponents 383-88 on the season, good enough for 49 points per game
- The Arcs fell to the Hilltoppers, 52-28, they finished the season 8-3 in 2015
- Hilltoppers have most potent offense in the area with 3,684 yards of total offense
- Chardon is led by QB Tommy Benenati, who has 1,299 yards rushing entering the game, he led the Hilltoppers to 377 yards rushing last week against Riverside

PLAYOFF PUSH

- Currently Chardon and South are the only teams in the playoffs according to JoeEitel, Brush sits in 11th (D2 R5) going into Week 9
- Three WRC schools made the playoffs last season (Mayfield, Madison, Chardon). Five WRC schools made the playoffs in 2014

NEXT UP FOR THE ARCS: KENSTON

- Arcs will take on the Bombers, they're coming off a loss against South
- The Arcs fell to the Bombers 57-26 last year at Korb Field on Senior Night
