Subject: BHS Parent Link Message: Semester Exams Schedule: 9 am

Good morning

The end of the first semester is approaching, and we will be administering semester exams to students beginning Thursday, January 21st. Please review the provided link for the exam schedule. Each day for exams will be a normal school day. This means students will take no more than two exams in a day, and they will follow their regularly assigned schedule.

On Tuesday, January 26th, we will administer the PSAT test to students in grade 10, as well as select students in grade 11. Additional information regarding this particular test day will be shared. If you have any questions, please contact my office.

Here is the link to view the semester exam schedule: Semester Exam Schedule

Thank you,

Mr. Williamson
